

An interview with Michelle Andrea Ocampo (our English language assistant from the Philippine Islands) By 3º
ESO EOI

Hi! I am Mitch and I am happy to be an assistant teacher here in Escultor Daniel. I am a fresh graduate and I decided to come to Spain to polish my Spanish language skills as well as to be able to do something more productive as compared to staying in the Philippines while I decide on what to do next with my life. Being in Spain makes me happy as I get to walk my way around. I also like how fun and friendly the people here are. It is also very interesting to immerse myself in a completely different place with various cultures. I didn't think that I would be making new friends here but I have and I am so glad to get to know people coming from different backgrounds.
